1. Terms of Agreement
   a. This contract is held between the student (also referred to as “you” and/or “resident” and University Housing & Dining (referred to as “UH&D” and/or “Contracts and Assignments”). If the student is a minor, this is an agreement between the student, guardian, and the University.
   b. The University’s acceptance of this agreement (a room assignment) guarantees you a space in Currier Hall.
   c. This agreement will be terminated immediately if you are suspended or dismissed from the residence hall or University. In any such instance, you agree to vacate the residence hall and not return without written approval of the University. You may be assessed a financial penalty for not meeting the full contract terms.
   d. Your electronic signature and application fee payment indicate your agreement to the terms and conditions of the contract. This agreement becomes binding seven (7) days after the University emails notice of acceptance of the contract and room assignment to the student, or when the student takes possession of the room, whichever comes first.
   e. No verbal statement by any party is considered an agreement or waiver of any term or condition, whether expressed or implied. This document constitutes the entire agreement of the parties.

2. Eligibility
   a. Admitted students at least 16 years of age by May 1, 2019, are eligible to apply and live in the residence halls.
   b. You must be an enrolled student at the University of Iowa registered for at least 1 credit of summer coursework, or otherwise determined eligible by the Senior Director of UH&D.
   c. You must be able to perform your own independent tasks with or without reasonable accommodations. You are responsible for your own self-care including appropriate personal hygiene, mental health, management of medical conditions/illnesses, and/or disability-related personal needs. You are expected to utilize the various resources available to provide care for yourself. Students with the inability or perceived inability to care for themselves and/or who cause harm to themselves or others may be asked to adhere to an action plan, and/or leave the residence halls.
   d. If your physical or mental health may jeopardize your or another resident's safety or wellbeing, you may be required to have an examination by a university physician or university counselor to determine if you have the ability to live safely and independently in an unsupervised environment. If the physician or counselor determines that a health or safety concern exists, the Senior Director of UH&D/designee may amend or suspend your housing contract.
   e. Subject to applicable obligations and University policy, the University reserves the right to determine that a student's medical condition, past behavior, and/or criminal activity is such that the interests of the University, the student, and/or other students would be best served by alteration or cancellation of the housing contract. If the University becomes aware that you have a record of criminal conviction(s) or other actions indicating behavior that could pose a risk to person or property and/or could be injurious or disruptive to the residence hall community or the living/learning environment, the University may not accept your application, or may immediately terminate the contract.
   f. Registered sex offenders are not eligible for University housing.

3. Contract Term
   a. This housing contract is for summer 2019, with a start date of Monday, May 13, 2019 and end date of August 3, 2019.
b. Your specific check in and check out dates will be determined based on availability and included in your notice of contract acceptance and room assignment email.
c. The contract does not include housing accommodations during the interim periods between spring and summer and then summer and fall semesters. Students must request interim housing during the application process.

4. Application
a. You must submit a completed application online in order to be offered a room assignment.
b. If you are under the age of 18 when you apply, your application must be electronically signed by a parent or guardian. The parent or guardian signature does not give any additional contractual rights, or allow your parent or guardian to receive any information protected by the Family and Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA).
c. Your application becomes a binding contract seven (7) days after the University emails notice of acceptance of the contract and room assignment to you, or when you take possession of the room, whichever comes first.
d. You may cancel your application by notifying Contracts & Assignments in writing or by completing the cancel section of the online application within the seven (7) day revocation period.
e. You may not sell or transfer your housing contract to another student.
f. You may not sublet your room space to another student.

5. Contract Cancellations
a. You may be released from your housing contract without financial penalty based on the criteria below if you submit a request in writing with documentation:
   i. You are not attending the University due to graduation, withdrawal, transfer, academic dismissal;
   ii. You are married and living with your spouse in the community (marriage certificate required for verification);
   iii. You will be participating in an academically-sponsored study abroad, co-op, student teaching, or internship program outside of the Iowa City area (acceptance verification required); or
   iv. You are called to duty for active military service (military orders required for verification).
b. If you cancel your housing contract because you are not attending the University, and then re-enroll in classes during the contract term, you will be financially responsible for your housing contract.
c. Requests to be released from your housing contract due to other reasons not listed above in 5.a. may be considered but may not be approved. You must provide documentation in order for your request to be evaluated based on:
   i. A new medical/psychological condition that was nonexistent prior to you moving into your room that cannot be supported by a Reasonable Request for Accommodations within University Housing & Dining;
   ii. An unforeseen significant financial hardship that occurred after the contract binding date; or
   iii. An alternative circumstance not previously addressed.

6. Contract Buyouts
a. You may request a buyout of your UH&D Summer 2019 contract for the non-negotiable rate dependent on the number of weeks of your contract. The rate will be adjusted based on the date the buyout is effective:
   i. 4 Week Session: $500
   ii. 6 Week Session: $750
   iii. 8 Week Session: $1,000
iv. 12 Week Session: $1,500
b. The effective date of your buyout is determined based upon when you officially check out of the residence halls. If you request a contract buyout prior to the start of the contract, May 13 will be your buyout effective date.

7. Contract Terminations
a. Your housing contract may be terminated in relation to any of the following circumstances:
   i. You are found responsible for violating the Student Code of Conduct or any other applicable law or University regulation;
   ii. You fail to register for courses; or
   iii. You fail to pay your University Bill.
b. If your housing contract is terminated, you will be responsible for the full cost of your housing contract.

8. Costs
a. You agree to pay the room and meal plan rates established by the Board of Regents. Your rate is determined by the type of room you are assigned, along with the meal plan you select. The Board of Regents reserves the right to change the approved contract rates during the term of the contract by giving a 30-day advance notice.
b. Housing costs do not include accommodations for interim housing periods.
c. Your room and meal plan charges will be billed in full at the beginning of each semester.
d. You will be responsible for the cost of your room and meal plan regardless of whether or not you pick up keys and move into the room.
e. If you fail to satisfy your financial responsibilities to the University, your room contract and/or your meal plan may be cancelled according to University rules and regulations. If you are sent through termination/eviction proceedings, you will be responsible for residence hall charges and any applicable court or legal costs.
f. If your room assignment and/or rate changes, prorated charges/credits will be assessed to your U-Bill to reflect the new rate.

9. Occupancy Dates
a. Specific check in and check out dates will be included with your notice of contract acceptance and room assignment.
b. Students may make requests to check into their assigned room before the dates below or check out after the dates below as availability allows. Change requests must be made in writing before your contract binding date. You will be charged the daily room rate for any additional nights in the residence hall. Early check-in requests will be honored as space is available.
c. Spring to Summer Interim (Spring 2019 residents only)
   i. Students currently living with UH&D will remain in their spring rooms until they are notified that their summer room is ready to be occupied.
   ii. Students are responsible for transporting their own belongings.
   iii. All students must be moved out and formally checked out of their spring room on Tuesday, May 14, 2019.

   ii. Check-out: Saturday, August 3, 2019

i. Summer to Fall Interim (Fall 2019 residents only)
   i. Students will be notified via email when their Fall 2019 room is ready to be occupied.
   ii. All students must be moved out and formally checked out of their summer room no later than 12:00/Noon on Saturday, August 3, 2019.
   iii. Students will be charged $30/night with no meals from August 3 to August 17, 2019.

10. Assignment Policy, Changes, and Consolidations
   a. Room Assignments
      i. UH&D follows the University of Iowa Human Rights policy statement when making your room assignment. http://opsmanual.uiowa.edu/community-policies/human-rights
      ii. Students with disabilities must submit a Reasonable Request for Accommodations by the priority deadline of May 5, 2019. Requests received after the priority deadline will be considered as space allows.
      iii. UH&D will attempt to honor your preferences, however, does not guarantee a room assignment in a particular room type.
      iv. UH&D reserves the right to assign/reassign you to any space within UH&D, even if it is not your preference.
      v. If you are assigned to a room that is designed as a space for a resident with a disability, the University reserves the right to change your room assignment should an applicant/resident with a disability require use of the space.

   b. Room Changes
      i. You may only occupy your assigned room.
      ii. Room changes require the written permission of UH&D.
      iii. Unauthorized room changes or failure to move out of a room at a designated time will result in being required to move back to your authorized assignment and/or disciplinary action.

   c. Room Consolidations
      i. If a vacancy occurs in your room during the course of the summer term, you must consolidate with another resident in a similar situation or choose to pay the adjusted rate according to actual room occupancy. Available options depend on occupancy at the time of vacancy. If you refuse to consolidate, you will be charged the prorated rate consistent with the occupancy of your room.
      ii. The option to purchase the other portion of your room may be available from UH&D throughout the semester. Single rooms will be made available based on availability and need. It will be at the discretion of UH&D when these will be offered.

11. Roommates
   a. UH&D will share your name, postal and email addresses, and telephone number, which are all considered public directory information, with any assigned roommate(s) unless a FERPA restriction is in place on this data. You can restrict some or all of your directory information online in MyUI.
b. If you participate in activities that bully, intimidate, harass, and/or physically harm a roommate or potential roommate either in person, verbally, or through electronic medium (including but not limited to social media websites, texts, email, and/or instant messaging), UH&D reserves the right to change your assignment to a different room and/or residence hall, and/or cancel your housing contract.

c. UH&D reserves the right to change your room, hall, and/or living learning community assignment if you and your roommate are unable to resolve incompatibility problems.

12. Room Entry and Search
a. You have the right to be secure in your residence hall room against unreasonable entry, search, and seizure. Entry, search, and seizure by peace officers is governed by law. It is a lawful request for a residence hall staff member to ask a student to open their room door. Failure to comply constitutes a policy violation and will result in disciplinary action.

b. University officials may enter your room under the following circumstances:
   i. Maintenance and custodial services requested by the occupant(s) or university personnel is being performed.
   ii. Routine inspection of rooms for safety, health, and general upkeep purposes or if maintenance is performed.
   iii. There is a perceived risk to safety, health, and/or occupant(s) or institutional property.
   iv. During announced break times.
   v. There is reasonable suspicion that a university policy is being violated.
   vi. Turning off an alarm, loud stereo/music, or loud TV when residents are not present.
   vii. There is a search warrant being carried out by a member of law enforcement.

   iii. Herky Booster Pack meal balances carry over from summer to fall to spring and do not expire until the end of the spring semester.
   iv. Unused meals are forfeited and non-refundable.

f. Dietary Needs
   i. Menus in the Market Places satisfy nutritional needs for the majority of medical dietary requirements and religious/lifestyle practices. Dining staff and/or our dietitian are available to work with students to meet specified dietary needs. A Dietary Needs Form must be submitted with documentation.

14. Keys and Access Cards
   a. You will be issued a key to your room upon check in, and you may also be issued a building key, access card, and/or a bathroom key.
   b. You are responsible for the use and return of your assigned keys and/or access cards. You cannot duplicate or transfer your keys to someone else.
   c. Lost, stolen, or missing keys/access cards constitute a security risk and automatically result in rekeying a room at a cost to the student.
      i. Once a request to rekey a room lock has been submitted, it cannot be reversed.

15. Fitness Centers
   a. Fitness centers within residence halls are closed during the summer session
b. As a registered student, you have access to campus facilities. You may view hours and locations on the Recreational Services website.

16. Damages
   a. You are responsible for all associated costs related to damage beyond normal wear to the room or its furnishings. Your room will be inspected before move in and you will have an opportunity to update any damages that may have been missed. You will need to talk to the residence hall office staff to report any damages. It is your responsibility to report any damages in writing within one week of moving into your room.
   b. You may not change the residence hall facilities nor remove or replace furniture supplied within the room or building.
   c. Repair and maintenance issues are only remedied by University-authorized personnel. These individuals have access to all rooms for health, safety, maintenance, and custodial purposes.
   d. Damages or excessive cleaning in public areas on the floor and stairwell (restrooms, lounges, study rooms, hallway, etc.) that are not attributable or chargeable to a specific individual or group shall be equally shared by the residents of the living area where those damages occur. The assessment of such damages is payable upon demand.
   e. You are advised to purchase renter’s insurance for personal coverage. University liability for loss of or damage to the personal property of the student or for injury to the student’s person while the student is a resident is set forth in Section 17 below.
   f. Personal property left in student rooms after check out will be disposed of after 7 days at the discretion of UH&D.

17. Liability
   a. The University assumes no liability for any loss or damage to the personal property of the resident, except as caused by negligent acts of its employees, and does not carry insurance on the personal property of the resident. Each resident should determine if their personal property is covered by their family’s/guardian’s homeowner’s or other insurance policies and should purchase personal property insurance as needed.
   b. In the event the premises or part thereof are destroyed or substantially damaged by fire or other unavoidable accident so as to render it unfit for the student’s use, the University shall not be obligated to rebuild said premises. If said premises shall remain unusable for a period in excess of 30 days, the student shall have the option of terminating this contract by giving written notice to the University or of reserving the right to occupy the premises when the same is rebuilt and becomes available. During the time the student is unable to use said premises or any part thereof, the student shall not be obligated to pay any portion of the room cost, but the University shall not be liable to the student for loss of use of the premises, including the expense of alternate accommodations.
   c. The University is not responsible for injuries to the student or invitees which might result from the use of the premises.

18. General Conditions
   a. Students are expected to know and abide by federal and state law; policies and rules of the Board of Regents, State of Iowa (The University of Iowa Policies and Regulations Affecting Students and; Residence Hall Specific Policies within the Code of Student Life; along with those featured on the UH&D website); and the terms and conditions of the residence hall contract. Violations of these rules are handled through the disciplinary procedures of the residence halls and/or through the University.
   b. No resident is to use their room or permit it to be used for any commercial purposes. Commercial soliciting in the building or on the grounds is forbidden.
   c. No pets shall be permitted in the residence halls, with the exception of fish in an aquarium of approved size or as approved by the University as part of a medical accommodation.
d. A student may, at the discretion of the Office of the Dean of Students, law enforcement, or the Senior Director of UH&D/designee, be prohibited from entering or being present in certain residence hall locations or the entire residence hall system.
